Our restructuring and recovery solutions

Our restructuring and recovery solutions team advises corporate clients and intermediaries in a wide variety of financially stressed and distressed scenarios.

We focus on addressing problems, providing practical and innovative solutions to preserve and enhance value, and if necessary, realize on assets.

Our approach is to invest time with our clients to fully understand their challenges and work alongside them to solve their issues.

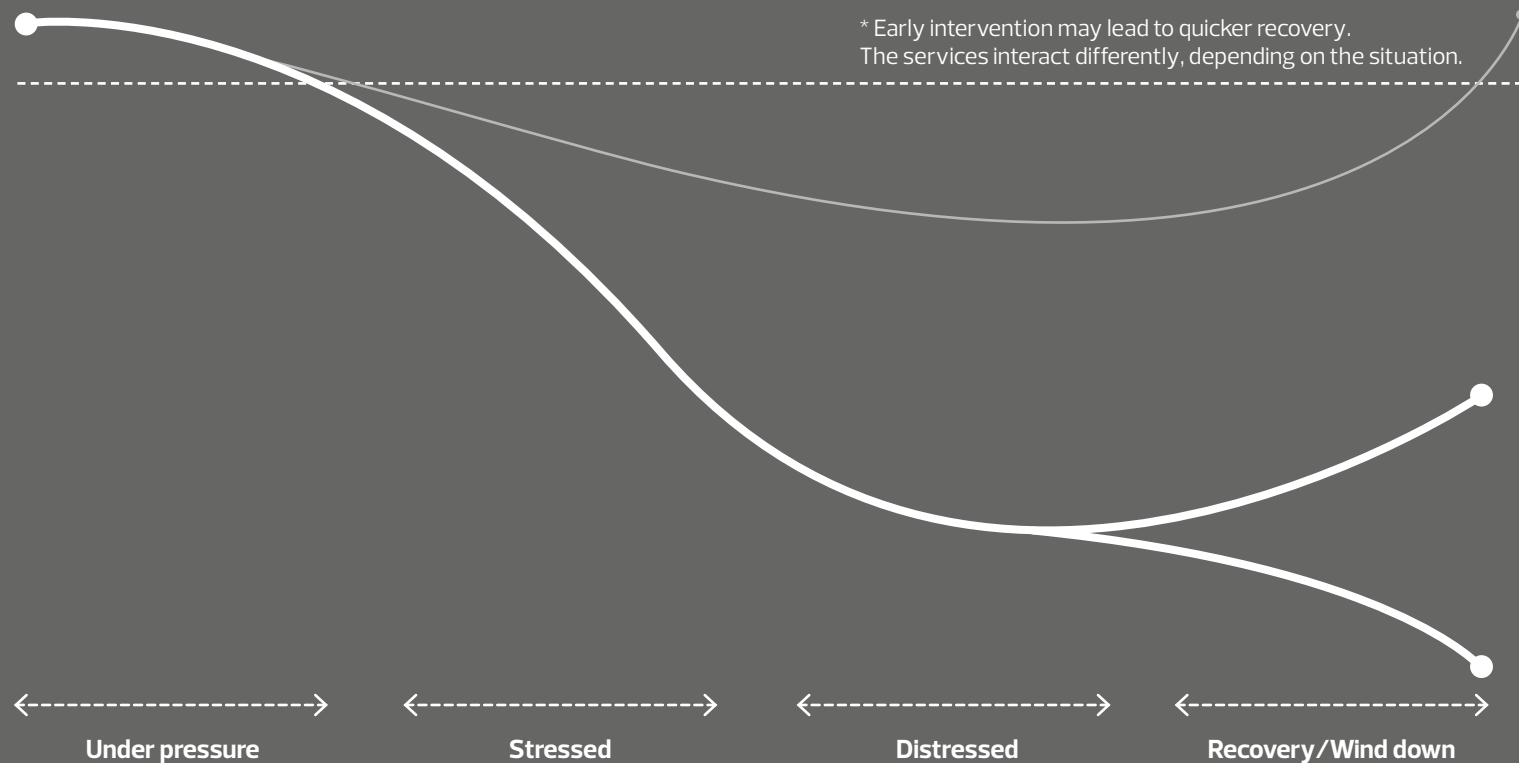

Utilizing our experienced teams, we focus on supporting you during challenging times.

Our solutions on the decline curve

Many companies suffer some form of financial difficulty in their life span and this is demonstrated below on the corporate decline curve.

Ideally, following the first signs of financial pressure, the directors take action and remedy the underlying issues preventing any further decline. We have set out how our restructuring and recovery solutions may sit along this decline curve.
